EAST GERMANY - WEST GERMANY: The East Germans have agreed to begin working-level talks with West Germany the end of this month. Pankow has repeated a proposal to discuss matters affecting Bonn's "transit" traffic to West Berlin in return for an end to "illegal activities" in the city by "other states," meaning West Germany. The East Germans tacitly acknowledged the idea of broadening the scope of the talks by republishing a Bonn government release that said they should serve detente in Central Europe as well as deal with unspecified matters of common interest. Egon Bahr, Chancellor Brandt's chief foreign policy adviser, and Michael Kohl, one of East German Premier Stoph's top aides, will lead the respective delegations.
